Living our Faith, Learning in Love

Friday 25th October 2024

Dear Families

Just a very quick message to wish you all a wonderful week away from school. I hope, whatever your plans, you have a fabulous time.

We rounded off a fantastic half-term with the most wonderful whole school Mass this morning, to celebrate All Saints' Day early (as we are still on holiday on the real date).

Many of the children chose to dress as their favourite Saint and we were absolutely delighted to see the intricacies of their costumes, and the trouble to which many of you must have gone to help them dress-up as they did – thank you! Father Ned was absolutely 'blown-away' with them all.

What a truly wonderful celebration – something we will definitely do again in years to come.

Thank you for all your help, support and understanding over this half-term, what a fabulous community we have here at All Saints'.

We're all very much looking forward to seeing you all again on Monday 4th November for another exciting half-term as we build up through Advent to our Christmas celebrations.

With very best wishes
